

DRUG FIEND'S RAVING TERRIFIES HUNDREDS AT CRIMINAL COURTS

A terrifying illustration of the frightful condition to which opium, morphine and cocaine reduce their victims was witnessed today by hundreds in the Criminal Courts Building. Harry Stone, a convicted work of a man, thirty-six years old, went crazy for want of drugs. His blasphemous ravings gave the shivers to the most calloused of those whose business has brought them for years into contact with Criminal Courts misery.

Stone and four others were arrested three days ago in a raid in an opium joint at No. 64 Seventh avenue. The frequenters of this place, according to detectives Carney and Cleary, have reached a stage where they require almost incredible quantities of morphine to satisfy their cravings. Stone told them he must absorb twenty-two grains of morphine or a proportionate amount of cocaine a day to feel normal.

It is the custom in the Tombs to give drug addicts small quantities of their favorite dope to keep them from going insane or dying in their cells. Stone has been so supplied, but his system has been calling for more and he collapsed today in the pen of the Court of Special Sessions while awaiting arraignment.

QUIETED BY A BIG DOSE OF MORPHINE.

He had a dope fiend's fit—a most horrible form of hysteria and muscular convulsions. One of the Tombs hospital staff gave him a big jab of morphine in the arm and in a few minutes he was able to stagger into court and face the Justices at the bar.

There was a wait of half an hour before the five prisoners taken in the raid were arraigned. The monotone effect of the morphine injection had faded away from Stone and he was suddenly seized with another fit. "Kill me! Kill me!" he shrieked. "A thousand devils are inside me tearing me apart! Kill me!"

Howling, blaspheming, biting his tongue, now squirming like a snake, now rigid as a corpse, he was carried back to the Tombs and placed in what service as a hospital. Until enough morphine was shot into his veins to quiet him, his ravings filled the big prison, and while faced drug dealers there are many such among the Tombs prisoners. Deceived with pounding hearts and painted in their fervid minds the finish they know they will encounter from the continued use of opium, morphine and cocaine.

JACKSON IS ARRAIGNED ON NEW FRAUD INDICTMENTS.

Real Estate Promoter Faces Additional Charge of Defrauding Doctor Out of $23,000.

Edgar R. Jackson, real estate promoter, who is under sentence of not less than 10 or more than seven and a half years in Sing Sing for defrauding clients in Long Island real estate transactions, was arraigned for pleading on new charges before Justice Goff in the Criminal Part of the Supreme Court today.

New indictments were found against him after the suicide of Miss Eleanor Mary, one of his dupes, early last week, charging him with defrauding Dr. William H. Leeds of Yonkers out of $23,000.

The new indictments were found because the District Attorney thought Jackson ought to be punished by a penalty greater than that resulting from his first conviction.

On motion of Assistant District Attorney James W. Osborne, the drawing of a panel of special assessors was ordered for a week from next Monday.

GIMBELS

GIMBEL BROTHERS
Have Pleasure in Announcing
The Exhibition on the Fourth Floor of A Working Model
Of the Panama Canal

This fascinating exhibit will arouse the utmost public interest in view of the vast importance of the Panama Canal, as a present-day topic of discussion.

It will prove of great instructive value to people about to make the trip to the Canal, as well as to those unable to go.

It is built from detailed and accurate information, topographical maps, etc., furnished by the United States Government, and from material gathered on a personal trip to the Canal Zone.

It shows graphically the course of the Canal, with ships in motion, locks and lighthouses in operation, as well as the famous Culebra cut, the Gatun dam, and the seaport towns of Panama and Colon, and affords a vivid idea of the nature of the surrounding country.

Explanatory Lectures will be given half-hourly, illustrated by lantern slides, and other exhibits.

We are glad to announce this intensely interesting Exhibit, which is first shown at GIMBELS, for a limited time only, and to invite cordially the public to see it.

A Surprise In The White Sale—Tomorrow

A Well-Known Manufacturer's Clearance of Fine Nightgowns, Combinations and Petticoats
To Be Sold Tomorrow at $2, Which Is Much Below Their Regular Prices

Petticoats for dancing—slashed at both sides of the front, and others that are gracefully curved just at one side, but there are many other kinds that are prettily trimmed with laces and even some with substantial embroideries that will appeal to the conservative women. All the Petticoats are fitted at the top.

So many kinds of Empire, kimono and V-neck Nightgowns and the trimmings on the combinations are so varied that we cannot tell about them all.

In Addition—complete selection in French and American Undermuslins at 50c to $1.50—and these prices represent savings of 10 to 33 1/3 per cent.

BROADWAY NEW YORK THIRTY-THIRD ST.

Final Notice—Before Inventory Of These Men's $25 to $35 SUITS and OVERCOATS At $17.50

Today and tomorrow—the last Saturday before Inventory—will be great clothing buying days for men, while yet the January Clearance prices prevail.

For this reason we emphasize this fine collection of several hundred of our Men's High-grade Winter Suits and Overcoats which we would rather sell at a lowered price than take on our stock sheets as "broken lots."

There you have it in a nutshell. Some of this Clothing has been advertised before at this price, but many higher values have been added. Each of these two groups is full of economy of the best kind, for it applies to thoroughly desirable Clothing:

The SUITS at $17.50
Several styles in conservative models, and many others with narrow shoulders without padding. Plain blues and blacks, as well as mixtures, including some of the handsomest effects we have shown this season.

The OVERCOATS at $17.50
Conventional Chesterfields in three-quarter length, Ulsters, Convertible Collar Coats, Shawl Collar Coats, single or double-breasted, and other models. In chinchillas, warmth-without-weight fabrics, Winter chevrons, tweeds, plaid backs, and staple Oxford grays and blacks.

Our Finest Suits and Overcoats, Much Reduced
To make matters still more interesting we have made emphatic price-reductions on all our remaining Suits and Overcoats, the latter including all our fine London-made Overcoats. In many cases the savings run as high as half.

Men's DRESS WAISTCOATS At $1.85, Regularly $3.50 to $5

Another clearance—partially the remainder of a special purchase, partially broken lines from our own stock. A variety of styles, suitable to wear with dinner coats or full evening dress. Some a little soiled from handling. All sizes, from 33 to 46, in one style or another, at $1.85 each.

Fourth Floor

Men's Fancy Madras Shirts At a Short Price—$1.25

The reason for the short price is out of the ordinary—a maker's short ends of the fine madras which he has been putting into his $2 and $2.50 Shirts of spring style.

We have 2,500 of these Shirts and they make a bully collection. All bear the Gimbel label, which signifies that they were made our way; and there is a wealth of fine patterns, and a variety of colorings wide enough to suit any man.

Plaited and plain bosoms, sizes 14 to 17.

Tomorrow, $1.25 each, instead of $2 and $2.50.

Main Floor

Men's English Hand-Sewn Cape Gloves, $1.50

That headline carries a distinct message of comfort and style to men who appreciate these qualities in the Gloves they wear. Economy, too. For the final test of economy is not merely a matter of price, but of the service which that price will buy. And the purchasing power of $1.50, as expressed in these Gloves, is very high. Correct in color and stitching, exact in cut; soft, but durable in leather. We've done our part in providing these Gloves—now it's up to you.

Finest Overcoats for Boys Strike a Low Price Level—$9.75

Former Prices $15, $18, $20 and More
Probably a couple of hundred of our best English and American Overcoats are here for boys and their parents to choose from. It's about the best Saturday news we could find to tell. There are fine blue chinchillas, rough chevrons, tweeds, plaid back fabrics in various handsome boyish models. With belted backs or belted all around.

In the collection are all sizes from 6 to 18 years, though not in each style. Other important offerings:

Boys' $10 and $12 Overcoats at $7.75
Long belted back models, in brown and gray mixtures, in Winter fabrics. Sizes 8 to 17 years.

Small Boys' Novelty Suits at $3.95
Were $7.50 and $8.50, many imported, sizes 2 1/2 to 8 years.

Boys' Double-Breasted Suits at $5 to $10
Were $7.50 to $18. In plain style, 10 to 18 years.

Also Norfolk Suits, sizes 7 to 18 years, that were $7.50 to $16.50.
